

NEWS OF MANCHESTER.

WILL OF THE LATE CHARLES M. COUSINS PROBATED.

How an Atheist Was Outwitted by a Parson—Cases Before Mayor Maurice, Other News.

MANCHESTER BUREAU, RICHMOND TIMES, 1112 HILL STREET, BEATRICE BLOCK.

The will of the late Charles Marshall Cousins, who died a few days ago, was probated in the Hustings Court yesterday morning.

Mrs. Elizabeth F. Cousins was made the executrix and the whole estate, which is valued at $1,200, is left to her. She gave bonds in the sum of $200.

BEFORE MAYOR M. A. MAURICE. The Hustings Court yesterday morning was very meagre and the cases few. Mayor Maurice dispensed justice in short order, and joined the procession that was on the way to see the circus parade in Richmond.

Mr. Norwood Bailey owns a horse, and when he left home he was taken up in his lot. There is a field nearby, and the horse ran the green grass and broke through the fence, began grazing, when Captain Lipscomb happened to pass by and saw the equine at his feast.

The owner was summoned before him. The horse was taken up, and the owner was fined $5.00 for letting his horse run at large. He was taxed $1, and the proceeds will go towards defraying the expenses of going to see the circus.

General Jones and James Price are two darkeys from Charlotte, Charlotte county, who came to town to see the circus, and take advantage of the cheap railroad fare.

Thursday night they were stopped by John Smith, a white man, who was with a group of brothers in black, who asked them for a drink, and as they did not have a drink with them, they were taken to the police station.

Thieves broke into the home of Lewis Johnson, 203 Hill street, Thursday night, and helped themselves to the goods in the store.

Johnson is a colored man. He put a small stock in this store last Saturday, and opened up for business, and had a prospect of doing a good business in the amount of capital invested.

The robber cut the pane of glass from the window, and took the goods and stole nearly everything he had.

The proprietor has no clue as to who did the deed, and idea as to who the guilty party is.

CLEANED THE SQUARE. Captain James A. Lipscomb, the City Engineer, and who has been in the street hands, had his force engaged yesterday in cleaning up the court-house square. This is quite an improvement on the looks of the place, and it will give a good chance to grow.

THE SQUIRE IS THE NEAREST THING THAT MANCHESTER HAS TO A PARK, and the hot summer nights it is always cool and pleasant under the great number of trees planted there, and which are appreciated by a number of people.

TEEM CLOSING TO-DAY. The Hustings Court was engaged yesterday in trying civil cases, and in session every day since the 13th of last month.

On account of the sickness of Captain A. A. Atkinson, the Commonwealth's Attorney, Judge Wm. L. CLOPTON, the City Attorney, has filled the position with credit to his credit and to himself.

IN FULL OPERATION. The Richmond Willow and Woodmen's Camp, No. 1, which has been in operation for some time, is now in full operation.

They have a large and convenient plant for their work, and are now filling orders right along.

Mr. E. H. Baskin, the efficient manager of the plant, has recently returned from a successful trip South, and brought with him orders for a large quantity of goods, and he will keep this place at work for some time to come.

AN ATHEIST OUTWITTED. One of the most pointed and able arguments in behalf of a believer in God and His works as arraigned against infidelity and atheism ever advanced in this community was presented yesterday at the Christian church, on Cowardin Avenue.

The minister's subject was "Atheism and Infidelity Rebuked."

In the course of his able discourse he said that a revival was going on in a certain town and a party of young men stopping at a hotel there had become very much interested in the subject of religion.

One of them was an infidel, and the religion one night when an infidel who was also at the hotel, entered the conversation, and said that he was an infidel.

"If you have a God show him to me," he said. "We can't do that," was the reply.

"Well let me feel him, hear him or touch him."

"We can't do that either," said the minister. "There is one thing certain," said the minister, "your God can't be comprehended by any of the senses you have here is no God."

About this time a young gentleman saw that the infidel was "getting them up" and called in the preacher, who was also stopping at the hotel.

The minister then turned to the infidel's assertion at once termed him an idiot, at which he expressed great surprise and said he never had been called an idiot before.

"What is an idiot?" asked the preacher. "One who has no intellect and is incapable of reasoning."

"Can you see an intellect and reasoning?" asked the parson.

"No," was the reply.

"Can you hear it? Can you feel it? Can you smell it?"

"No," was the reply.

"Then you are the idiot I referred to," said the minister.

"Here's how it is. According to your idea an idiot is one void of intellect and your intellect can't be comprehended by any of the senses, so you are an idiot, and I said in the beginning."

BRIEF AND PERSONAL. Mr. W. C. Marshall, editor of the Virginian-Warrenton, of Warrenton, Va., has been visiting Mr. W. C. Marshall.

Rev. Dr. R. F. Thornhill, pastor of Bainbridge Street Baptist church, and Rev. W. E. Hurt, pastor of Stockton Street Baptist church, will be in attendance to the Baptist Convention in this city.

Miss Lillian Thornhill, of Porter street, has returned to her home at Blackstone.

been chartered by Judge Wellford of the Circuit Court. This concern is in the possession of a peculiar process of curing eggs, by which eggs that have been preserved for several weeks will be made as fresh and tempting as if they had just laid the tender care of the hens. The modus operandi is said to be a very simple one. All that is required is to place the eggs in a box prepared for that purpose and after the application of a certain powder for a fixed time the eggs will be ready for table use.

Seminary Trustees Sustained the Learned President.

The announcement that the Board of Trustees of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary of Louisville, Ky., had decided at their meeting Thursday night in Wilmington, N. C., to uphold Rev. Dr. W. H. Whitsett, president of the Seminary, in his views published on the subject of whether or not the English Baptists prior to 1641, practiced immersion, is of interest to a large number of Baptists in this city, who are warm friends of Dr. Whitsett.

The distinguished educator is well known in Richmond, and indeed throughout the South. Some time ago he published his views as to the effect that the English Baptists, prior to 1641, did not practice immersion. These views, which were the result of Dr. Whitsett's careful historical research, provoked widespread discussion among the Baptists in certain parts of the South.

Dr. Whitsett was called upon by many of those antagonizing his views to resign his position as President of the Seminary. He did not so vigorously oppose the publication of his views as Dr. Whitsett feared. He took a philosophical view of the case, and while some of them seemed to regret that Dr. Whitsett had reached these conclusions, they argued that his views were held were a matter of history, and were based upon facts, there was nothing to do but accept the situation as it was.

Court-Martial Dissolved.

The Adjutant-General has by direction of the commander-in-chief just issued special order No. 6, which is as follows: "Upon the recommendation of Brigadier-General A. L. Phillips, of the First Brigade special order No. 2, which was issued on April 24th, 1915, is hereby rescinded and the court to be convened by said order is dissolved."

Special order No. 2 had been issued to convene a court-martial at Blackstone, to try Captain J. M. Harris, of the 2nd Virginia Regiment, on charges of insubordination and disobedience of orders.

The charges set forth that Captain Harris had failed to forward to headquarters certain papers and reports in the manner prescribed by law. Captain Harris claims that he gave the order to forward the papers to his clerk in due time, but that the latter neglected to promptly carry out the instructions of his employer.

Visited the Schools.

Most of the superintendents of public schools who have been attending the recent meeting of the Virginia State Board of Education, held at the Hotel Richmond, have returned to their respective schools. Some of those remaining, whose attention was not taken up by the circuit parade, visited some of the public schools of this city during the day.

Superintendent Fox showed a few of his colleagues through Baker school and then to the Central School, where he visited the Central School on north Twelfth street.

A NEW DISCOVERY BY THE SHAKERS.

For more than a hundred years the Mount Lebanon Shakers have studied the cultivation of medicinal plants, and sought to extract from them their healing essences. Their labor has not been spent in vain. They have made a discovery that will prove a blessing to mankind. It consists of a cordial that causes immediate relief in cases of indigestion.

The importance of this discovery will be apparent when we realize that nearly nine-tenths of our suffering are caused by dyspepsia, or indigestion. Nearly every person you meet has this digestive trouble. It is a common ailment, and its cure is a matter of life and death.
